Through the efforts of Miss Lucy Randall of Groton, curator of the Monument house, George O. Miner, who presented the gift, an old-fashioned weaving loom upon which rag rugs may be made, has been added to the collection of interesting relics and heirlooms already exhibited there. During the past few days the setting up of the loom has been under way. The old machine was formerly the property of Adelaide Avery, daughter of Peter Avery, and later wife of John Owen Miner, who was grandfather of George O. Miner of Groton borough. The services of Mrs. J. E. Lester, who is an adept in weaving rag rugs, have been enlisted, and Monday the loom was strung. A portion of a rug will be woven and left on the machine, that visitors may see how the work is done.

Miss Randall has also succeeded in securing a spinning wheel which will run. A number of beautiful examples of the old machine are on exhibition, but none are in running order. Miss Randall has succeeded in having a broken portion of one of them replaced and visitors may take a hand at spinning, as well as weaving.

MOHEGAN SUNDAY SCHOOL
Programme of Music and Recitations by the Children.

Children's Day was observed by the Mohegan church Sunday school with special exercises Sunday evening. The church was prettily decorated with flowers, the altar being made especially attractive for the young people who took part in the pleasing programme.

The exercises opened at seven followed with prayer by the superintendent, E. F. Kent.

Song, "Yes, There's Sunshine, school; recitation, "Till Try," Doris Fowler; solo, Roy Fielding; responsive reading, Superintendent E. F. Kent and song, school; recitation, "Who Knows?" four girls; song, primary class; recitation, "Planting," song, school; recitation, "What Makes the Plants Grow?" four girls; vocal solo, Hope Holden; vocal solo, "Lullaby," Winifred Quigdon; song, school.

The program was cared for by the pastor, Miss Lillian Daniels, to whom much of the success of the evening is due.

PLAN FOR CONFERENCE

HERE NEXT YEAR
State Board of Charities and Corrections Met in New Haven.

At an executive meeting of the state board of charities and corrections held Tuesday in New Haven preliminary plans were made for the next conference of the board which is to be held in this city next spring. The programme was outlined in part and the board officials have hopes of securing a noted Chicago speaker.

Norwich was represented by O. Smith, president Mrs. George D. Colt, Mrs. Frank Mitchell and Dr. Pollock. From New London were George Palmer and Edward Lynde, the secretary of the next conference. State also present. The total attendance numbered 14.

There was launched at Port Arthur recently the largest steamer on the Great Lakes, having a capacity for 555,000 bushels or 12,000 tons of oats.

Schooner A. T. Gifford, which is being fitted out for a trip to Hudson bay, will be commanded by Capt. Arthur O. Gibbons of this city. The Gifford will not winter in Hudson bay as has been the custom for several years, when she has been sent north by her owner, F. N. Monjo, but will take up a quantity of supplies and trade for George Cleveland, who is now established in the bay for Mr. Monjo, and will bring him back with furs have been collected by Cleveland during the two years he has been in the bay. Last winter a letter was received by Mr. Monjo that Cleveland had secured some furs.

The probability is that Mr. Monjo will send up on the Gifford another man who will open a trading station to work in the interests of Mr. Monjo. Captain Gibbons, who will take the Gifford to Hudson bay this summer, has been there two years in the schooner Francis Allen, wintering there both times. He had command of the schooner on two voyages previous to that made when she was burned, and her crew brought down by Captain Comer in the Era.

MAY WAS HEALTHY
MONTH IN STATE
98 Less Deaths Than in Same Month a Year Ago.

Mortality reports received by the state board of health show that during May there were 1,411 deaths in Connecticut. This was 38 less than in April and 98 less than in May of last year and 28 less than the average number of deaths during May for the five years preceding.

The death rate expressed as an annual rate per 1,000 estimated population was 13.2 for the large towns, 11.8 for the small towns and for the whole state, including state institutions.

The deaths from infectious diseases were 193, being 15.6 per cent. of the total mortality.

FUNERAL

Horace A. Briggs.

At two o'clock Tuesday afternoon there was a large attendance at the funeral of Horace A. Briggs which was held from his home, No. 44 Pearl street. The services were conducted by Rev. Joseph P. Cobb, pastor of the Universalist church, and there were handsome floral tributes. Relatives were present from Hartford, Providence, New London, Waterbury, Pomfret, Woodstock, Voluntown, North Stonington, Plainfield and Scotland.

The bearers were Leonard P. Church, Henry Whiting of Merrowsons-in-law; Harvey M. Briggs, Horace I. Briggs of Providence, Robert B. Cobb of Hartford, and Kenneth Church, grandsons. Burial was in the family lot in Yantic cemetery where a committal service was read by Rev. Mr. Cobb.

Church & Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

OBITUARY.

Frank Alba Smith.

On Friday, June 11th, at his home in Jamaica, N. Y., occurred the death of Frank Alba, only son of the late Alba F. Smith. He was born in Norwich, Conn., July 11, 1842, where he lived many years. After his marriage to Emily L. Manning, M. D., at Hartford, Conn., in October, 1872, he later removed to New York, where, with his family, he has since resided. The deceased is survived by his wife and daughter Edith, also his sister, Mrs. Sarah L. Smith-Young.

DINNER TO SUFFRAGAN BISHOP

Voted to be Given by Archdeaconry—To be as Soon as Can be Conveniently Arranged—Rev. J. Eldred Brown Renominated Archdeacon for Four Years

REV. J. ELDRÉD BROWN, Renominated Archdeacon.

Rev. J. Eldred Brown, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, was unanimously renominated archdeacon for four years, at the annual meeting of the New London Archdeaconry, held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waresan house. The meeting was presided over by Archdeacon Brown and the usual appropriations and apportionments slightly increased were made. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Secretary, J. H. George, Jr., Danvers; treasurer, Augustus T. Sullivan, Norwich; auditors, S. Alpheus Gilbert and Daniel P. McNeil, Norwich. Rev. P. M. Kerridge, of New London, was made chairman of the committee on social service and the committee on apportionment and appropriations and on work among foreigners were reappointed as follows: Archdeacon Brown, chairman ex-officio; Rev. P. Sydney Irwin, Pomfret; Rev. P. M. Kerridge, New London; Rev. R. R. Graham, Norwich; Rev. J. H. George, Jr., Danvers, and Winslow T. Williams and A. T. Sullivan. Both these committees have the same membership.

A vote of congratulations to the suffragan bishop-elect was passed, assuring him of their cordial cooperation and support, and it was also voted to give a dinner to the suffragan bishop-elect at as early a date as possible. The details are left in the hands of the archdeacon.

Those present at the meeting were: Archdeacon J. Eldred Brown, and Revs. Richard R. Graham, F. J. Behrman, Norwich; Sanford, Stonington; L. C. Sherburne, Poquitanuck; Alvin P. Knell, Brooklyn; M. McLean, Goldville; Yantic; C. S. M. Stewart, Groton; P. M. Kerridge, New London; C. J. Harriman, Putnam; J. H. George, Jr., Danvers, and Laymen George B. Stevens, Allan C. Matthews, Charles B. Chapman, Edward H. Tibbitts, C. N. Condon, A. T. Sullivan, Norwich; Charles H. Goss, New London. The members of the archdeaconry enjoyed lunch at Mabrey's previous to the meeting.

RATHBORN RETURNS TO NORTH STONINGTON

Pardoned Prisoner is Again Free Man—Mother Living Yet.

Charles I. Rathborn, Tuesday left the state prison at Wethersfield a free man. He was taken there 23 years ago to serve a life sentence for the murder of the man who came between him and his wife. For nearly a quarter of a century Rathborn had breathed only prison air and had seen the world only between the white iron bars of cells. On Monday the board of pardons pardoned him. Tuesday he went to Hartford with M. O. Fry, clerk of the prison who put him on a train for North Stonington, where his aged mother, 86 years old, awaited him. Joseph Stout, also pardoned, left at the same time. Mr. Fry Tuesday brought him to Hartford and put him on a train for New York, where he has an old mother who is in her eighties, waiting for him. He had been in prison twelve years. He was convicted of murder in the second degree in 1903, at Bridgeport, and sentenced to prison for life.

However each may have felt, neither of the men betrayed, by any external signs, that he was not an ordinary citizen, accustomed to breathing the free air. They expressed some pleasure in a quiet way when they got into the automobile, for neither of them had ever been in one before. Rathborn looked down at his citizen's clothes with evident surprise and enjoyment. "This is great," he said. "It seems like a dream."

He admitted that he felt a little strange at leaving the prison, and a little sorry, curiously enough. It was the only home he has had since he was a young man.

TRADING COVE SUNDAY SCHOOL HAD PROGRAMME

For Observance of Children's Day on Sunday Afternoon.

There was a good attendance at the Children's Day exercises of the Trading Cove Sunday school, held in the schoolhouse Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The schoolhouse was attractively decorated with flowers. The exercises opened with the hymn, "Precious Saviour, followed by prayer by the superintendent, E. F. Kent. Recitation, Jolly Little Workers, Donald Votz, Claire Lester, Gerald Shaffer; recitation on the children of the Strange Pain, Gertrude Thorne; song, three girls; recitation, Primroses, Carrie Burdick; reading, St. Peter's Reply, Anna Shaffer; recitation, "Like Jesus, Inez Orr; selection, "Sometime, Somewhere, Bertha Wordhese; song, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds. The programme was a most enjoyable one, reflecting much credit upon the participants and upon Miss Clara Royce, who had the care of the evening.

Laboratory Work at Sanatoria.
At the meeting of the tuberculosis commission at the institution in Shelton on Monday afternoon, there was a discussion on the subject of laboratory work in connection with tuberculosis. The members of the commission, impressed on the physicians in charge of the different institutions the necessity of giving particular attention to work in the laboratories. It was said that Dr. Stockwell, who has charge of the institution at Shelton, had been quite successful in this line.
